BLIZZARD IN MARCH COST 3 FIRMS $32,000

The blizzard that ripped down utility lines, closed schools for two days, shut down many business places and wrought havoc with communication here on March 5 and 6 was one of the worst — and costliest — in years, utility company officials agreed today.

They have counted up the cost of the worst storm of the winter and one of the worst in many years and estimate the foot or more of snow cost utility companies alone more than $32,000.

The biggest damage bill was reported by the Adams Electric Cooperative with its hundreds of miles of rural power lines. The storm damage bill to its lines and poles in Adams, York and Franklin Counties was placed at $14,500 to $15,000 by Manager John Kershaw.

PHONE COMPANY $11,000

Adams Electric employees who have been with the cooperative here for its 20 years said it was one of the most disastrous winter storms it had experienced in those two decades.

Metropolitan Edison Company reported storm-connected loss of about $6,500 and was chiefly due to extra labor required to put substations and other facilities back in service. MECO lost only one or two poles in this district but many linemen worked many extra hours to restore electrical service to thousands of users.

The United Telephone Company counted an $11,000 storm-connected bill in the Gettysburg district as compared with a $60,000 snow cost tabulated for the United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

DRIFTS HAMPERED WORK

District Manager John Caldwell described the storm as one of the "most widespread and severe in recent years" and one which created problems in nine of the

ZIEGLER PHOTO WINS HONOR AT ANNUAL DINNER

C. Robert Ziegler, W. Middle St. photographer, was announced Friday night as having made the "Print of the Year" at the annual ladies' night banquet of the Gettysburg Photographic Society in the social rooms of Trinity United Church of Christ, S. Stratton St.

Paul A. Kinsey, Reading, a former resident of Gettysburg and an amateur photographer, was the judge of the "print of the year" contest, in which were placed the pictures made by all of the local society's members during the last year.

Kinsey chose Ziegler's close-up of a row boat as the best of all the entries. Second place went to a picture of Monticello entered by Dr. C. Allen Sloat and third place was awarded to a picture of a mountain landscape entered by David Garfinkle.

Honorary mention was awarded a portrait of an Indian woman made in the southwestern United States by Dr. Sloat and to a picture of poppy buds made by Joseph D. Kendelhart.

Kinsey also showed a number of pictures he had made during the last year and commented on the methods of taking the pictures and developing them.

New officers were installed. They include Dr. Frederick Tilberg, who had been re-elected to the presidential post; Dr. Francis G. Mason, vice president, and Joseph D. Kendelhart, secretary-treasurer.

Local Librarian At State Sessions

Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian at the Adams County Public Library and secretary of the Pennsylvania Library Association, has returned from attending a two-day meeting of the executive board of the state association at Harrisburg on Thursday and Friday. About 30 librarians and officials attended the sessions with the state president, Miss Lorena Garloch, librarian of the University of Pittsburgh, presiding.

Because Mrs. Wilson was attending the PLA sessions, the board of directors of the county library postponed its April meeting from Friday evening until next Friday.

SCOUT DRIVE IS COMPLETE IN FOUR AREAS

Four of the 15 communities into which the Black Walnut Boy Scout District has been divided for its annual solicitation for funds outside Gettysburg have reported completion of their portion of the campaign. Gettysburg supplies its share of the district cost through community chest.

Jack H. Orner, general finance chairman, in reporting on progress of the campaign, said $4,483.55 has been raised so far. $2,423.55 through the 15 community campaigns and $2,060 through the special gifts campaign. The drive is designed to raise $5,700.

Orner said he anticipates the fund drive can be completed by April 30. About half the 136 solicitors have ended their individual part of the drive, Orner said.

ORRTANNA OVER TOP

The campaign chairman praised Orrtanna where a committee headed by James Neeley and Arthur Wetzel with 10 solicitors, has already raised $87, one dollar more than was raised in the entire campaign last year in that community, and the solicitation there is not completed.

The areas that have completed their portion of the campaign, the chairman and the amounts raised are: Aspers, Charles Slonaker, $103 (last year's drive raised $97); Bendersville, Roy Starnes, $130.75 (last year the amount was $110.85); Heidersburg, Mrs. Donald Lady, $111 (last year the amount was $101.05); Mummasburg, Dwight Reinhart, $35.75 (last year the amount was $38).

Delivery Mixup At Rummage Sale

Officials at the rummage sale being held by the Warner Hospital Auxiliary and the Rotary Club at the pressroom in the Hotel Gettysburg today and Friday were hopeful Friday that someone would return two metal green and white lawn chairs they inadvertently took from the sale.

As officials explained it, a dining room suit and the lawn chairs were among items of furniture offered for sale. The lawn chairs were sold, and so was the dining room suit. The person purchasing the suit said she would send some men in to pick up the suit. They arrived and picked up the suit. Unfortunately the lawn chairs were close by and apparently were also carried out. Sale officials hope to get the lawn chairs back to be delivered to the person who bought them.

FOUNDER'S DAY TALK GIVEN BY DR. BRATTAIN

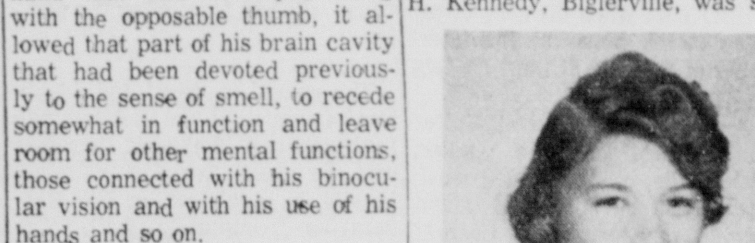

"The first event that occurred to our ancestors that began to separate them from the rest of the animal kingdom was the fact that they were probably chased into the trees by their enemies," said Dr. Walter H. Brattain, covingner of a Nobel prize and Bell Telephone Laboratories research physicist, in an address before 1,600 at the 130th Founder's Day program at Gettysburg College Friday morning.

"This had certain very definite effects upon their development. One was that the sense of smell that most animals use, almost to the exclusion or at least better than any of the other senses, was not of any particular value in the trees. Sense of smell is only valuable if one can have his nose close to the ground.

"Being in the trees, swinging from branch to branch, if you will, there was a premium on binocular vision. It was nice for him to see where he was going to land. Also, in grasping limbs, it made sense to have a thumb opposable to the rest of the four fingers, and since he did not need particularly his nose or his snout, since he could now feed himself with his hand that had developed along with the opposable thumb, it allowed that part of his brain cavity that had been devoted previously to the sense of smell, to recede somewhat in function and leave room for other mental functions, those connected with his binocular vision and with his use of his hands and so on.

The display ranges from humorous pictures of animals and school activities to serious portraits of people and places. The purpose of the awards is to encourage creative competition among young people and to afford them a means of artistic expression through the exercise of their photographic skill.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Jean Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Lawrence, R. 3, to William Harrison Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie H. ### U.S. Hopes To Get Release Of Americans Held In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department says it is working through the Swiss government to obtain release of seven U.S. skindivers arrested in Cuba.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Friday night he anticipated no difficulty in gaining freedom for the men, believed to be the same ones for whom the U.S. Coast Guard has been searching.

Rusk said the men were innocent adventurers en route to Jamaica to explore for sunken treasure.

Havana radio, describing the seven as "so-called frogmen," said they were arrested Thursday off the north coast of Oriente Province. Later, a semiofficial Havana television commentator, Marion Kuchlan, called the seven invaders, hinting that they might face serious charges in Cuba.

CALL OFF SEARCH

The Coast Guard had been searching since Wednesday for a boat carrying seven skindivers.

Congressman Gooding also told the group he wants a more careful study of foreign aid, saying he "doesn't believe in subsidizing our enemies"; feared reciprocal trade may "hurt our economy"; and said he wasn't sure the U.S. should buy $100,000,000 worth of United Nations bonds. Agreeing there is a need for the international organization, he said those countries which did not pay their share of cost of its operation should be "kicked out" of the U.N.

The proposed milk control bill, Huber said, would seek to level milk production throughout the country. One facet of the proposed law would limit production to 91 per cent of 1961 production and penalize those who produced more than that amount.

District 25 Chairman Frank Coffelt presided. Among those introduced were David Litton, Boonesboro, director of Interstate from District 25, and Fieldmen Elwood Hench, Loysville, and E. C. Dunning, Chambersburg.

BARTON HOPPE IS PRESENTED JAYCEE AWARD

Barton Hoppe, manager of the Howard Johnson Restaurant, was presented the outstanding Jaycee-of-the-year award at the annual awards, installation of officers and ladies' night banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Friday evening in the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Hoppe, who had served as the internal vice president and parliamentarian during the past year, is the newly elected external vice president.

The "key man" award, as it is called, was presented by Past President Harry Spangler. Other awards were presented to: Outstanding committee chairman, Thomas Piper, for his work in landscaping the Adams County Free Library area; outstanding new Jaycee, Samuel King; outstanding officer, Donald Becker, and the fledgling honor roll citation, to King, Richard Marker and George Flickinger. The roll is for new members who have shown the most interest and were most active during the year.

"Becker was the politician behind the scenes, so to speak," he said.

Doughton's topic was "What People Are Looking for in Men Who Join the Jaycees." "What are people looking for in the leaders of our next generation?" he asked. He said that "ministers are looking for faith in leaders, businessmen for the aggressive individual to anticipate problems, and public

DISTRICT MILK PRODUCERS HIT FEDERAL BILL

Opposition to the administration's proposed milk control bill was expressed by J. Lin Huber, St. Thomas, president of the Interstate Milk Producers Cooperative, and Congressman George Gooding at a meeting of members of District 25 of the Interstate Milk Producers Friday night at the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Huber described the 106-page House Bill 1010, now in congressional subcommittee as a "straight jacket telling the dairy farmer what he can do and can't do." Gooding, who noted he is a fruit farmer rather than a dairy farmer, opposed the measure on the general premise that the federal government should not get into additional regulation of business.

Huber said that the Philadelphia area has "had no problem in handling surplus milk for the last seven years. In the Philadelphia area we have a built-in mechanism, enough plants to handle all of our surplus milk, and a result the government has not had to buy any surplus milk from the Philadelphia area for the last seven years."

SAYS HUMANS CAN FILTER OUT SOME FALLOUT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Humans as well as animals have a built-in filter to screen out some of the strontium-90 of radioactive fallout, says an Agriculture Department scientist.

Dr. Frank A. Todd, assistant to the administrator of the Agriculture Research Service, calls this filter a "discrimination factor" and says it is important in protecting milk from dangerous contamination.

Strontium-90 is potentially dangerous because it settles in the bones and in sufficient amounts could cause cancer.

"Fortunately, the metabolic process of both man and animals acts to reduce substantially the amount of strontium deposited in the bones of man, as compared to the amount originally present in the vegetation and in the soil where it grows," Todd said.

PREFER CALCIUM

Todd said the biological systems of men and animals have a natural preference for calcium over strontium. The latter is similar in character to calcium.

"Relatively more calcium than strontium is carried along as these minerals move together through the food chain from the soil to the plant, then through the body to their resting place in the bones," he said.

"In milk, the discrimination factor operates twice. The biological system of the cow screens out over 90 per cent of the strontium from entering the milk and the biological system of man screens out still more of the strontium from entering the bones."

Dairymen can help cows and milk users ward off bone absorption of strontium by seeing to it that their cows get plenty of calcium.

CHASES TRUCK AFTER MISHAP

A Silver Spring, Md., motorist chased a tractor-trailer driver from Gettysburg to Dillsburg Friday at 7 p.m. when the rear of the trailer struck a car at the intersection of Carlisle St. and E. Lincoln Ave.

Borough officer Russell Potter said Edward Charles Oakes, Franklinville, N. Y., headed north in the tractor-trailer and about to make the turn from Carlisle St. into E. Lincoln Ave., swung wide so his vehicle would be able to make the turn.

When the traffic light changed, Oakes, seeing a car beside his truck, permitted it to make the right turn and then followed it with his truck, not noticing that another northbound car, driven by Robert Morrison, Silver Spring, Md., had also pulled to the right of the truck preparatory to turning into Lincoln Ave.

JAIL FORMER VICE PREXY OF YUGOSLAVIA

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Milovan Djilas, former vice president of Yugoslavia and critic of the Communist system he helped build, was arrested today.

A spokesman for the Ministry of Information said Djilas had been taken into custody but did not give the reason for his arrest.

The 51-year-old Djilas was first arrested in 1957 for his book "The New Class" expounding on the shortcomings of communism. He was released in 1961 after serving four years in prison.

Djilas, once a close associate of Marshal Tito and mentioned as his possible successor, refused to recant his theory that communism on overthrowing the old order, inevitably develops a new class of exploiters.

Djilas stood by Tito when Stalin attempted to destroy the Tito regime in 1948, but he later became an outspoken advocate for more democracy in Yugoslav politics.

Djilas' writings and speeches finally led to his expulsion from the government and important positions in the Yugoslav Communist party in 1954.

He was convicted of conspiring against the Yugoslav government and received a three-year prison term in 1956. But his book "The New Class" was completed in the meantime and smuggled out of the country.

When it was published in August 1957 Djilas was retried and sentenced to nine years imprisonment. It was later shortened for good behavior.

FOUNDER'S DAY

he could walk, learn to walk erect. He didn't need to keep his nose to the ground. He had developed a hand that was ideally for future craftsmanship and the development of tools. He was probably the first animal to use a tool other than the simple picking up of a stone to throw it, and very few other animals can even do this.

"His brain case expanded proportionally, leaving room for other mental functions, as they developed. He eventually learned to talk and to communicate with his other fellow creatures. He learned to write and, with the talking and writing, it became possible for him to pass on to future generations his experience in his short span of life. Of course, this led to the development of what we call culture.

"Along with this came what most anthropologists consider most important, that is the delayed development and care of the young. In the hierarchy of the animal kingdom the anthropologist measures the animals' development, their rank, by the length of time it takes the young to mature. The result of all this was man, the curious animal with a highly developed imagination.

"Now, of course, this is a story. None of the anthropologists were there to observe this development. There is, however, considerable evidence that this is what took place. They have examined the evidence. It is a good explanation of what went on. If one wishes, one can say that he does not believe this story. I suggest to you, however, that we intuitively, in the things we say, accept this explanation without thinking about it.

"You are all familiar with such expressions in our language as: 'to get your nose out of the gutter' or 'to see beyond your nose.' Some of us have difficulty doing this. In another context one says 'lift up thine eyes and see.' The evidence that is in our language from expressions of that kind make us realize that we may not yet be quite emancipated from our nose and give tacit acceptance to the fundamental part of this story."

By BEN BURROUGHS
"LESSON FROM RAIN"

The rain came with a mighty roar . . . from out a somber sky . . . to drench the earth around me with . . . its torrents from on high . . . I looked for shelter from the drops . . . that beat upon my head . . . for I knew if I found a spot . . . I'd have nothing to dread . . . while waiting for the skies to clear . . . I thought of how the rain . . . compared to all the woes of life . . . that cause much grief and pain . . . rain makes us sad but then again . . . it makes the flowers grow . . . just as the pangs of trouble teach . . . us how to detour woe . . . I learned a lot watching the rain . . . from this refuge I took . . . for things are clear when looked upon . . . from a secluded nook . . . then suddenly the skies were clear . . . and raindrops did not fall . . . and I found that my worry . . . was not worth it at all.

office holders, men of conviction and courage who stand up for what the people look for."

CITES CHALLENGE

He quoted Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, of Connecticut, who said that "people ought to look at themselves and then decide if they measure up to their responsibilities."

The executive related many instances throughout the United States as examples of Jaycees' measuring up to the challenge of this day and age.

"The real test of leadership doesn't come from public speeches and parliamentary procedure, but it comes from exposing ourselves to a challenge that is bigger than we are, so we have to grow to meet the challenges," he said.

Doughton cited several tests of leadership which a chapter may apply. He urged that "they expose themselves to the challenge, that really counts, those that build the chapter, state and nation. Where responsibility is, and where challenge is, there is controversy."

INSTALL OFFICERS

The second test, he said, is to care more for the future. "The real decisions are those that the Jaycees must find the answers to, if we desire the right to be citizens."

The new officers installed by Doughton were: President, Richard Guise; external vice president, Barton Hoppe; internal vice president, Thomas Piper; secretary, John Basore; treasurer, John Guise; board of directors, James Crum, Robert Weiland, Charles Angstead, Thomas Metz, Harry Spangler and Donald Becker. Doughton also presented Weiland with his past president's pin.

President Guise said, "I hope to make this chapter a vital force in the political and governmental affairs of our community. We need men of new blood and ideas if we want to grow."

PRESENT GIFTS

Retiring President Weiland said "It was a team effort all the way. For this, I am truly grateful. You made my job much easier."

Past president Harry Spangler presented Weiland with a gift in honor of the latter's election to state vice presidency. A "Fish Dish" was presented by Weiland to Guise, and Guise presented Wesley Kriebel with a brief case as a going-away present.

James Crum served as toastmaster and presented Mrs. Nancy Weiland with the floral piece at present.

SALVATION

Locally much of the Salvation Army care goes to visitors who become stranded here, and to local area residents who find themselves in financial difficulties.

To meet the need immediately, the local borough police have authority to give such help as overnight lodging, a meal, gasoline, etc., when needed.

During the year the local Salvation Army has aided families whose cars broke down and they were without funds. Food and gasoline to see them home were given. On several occasions men traveling to live with relatives arrived this far and found their resources expended by this time, and received help.

Numerous persons have been provided a night's accommodations and a breakfast when stranded here during the year. Numerous local area families, utterly without funds and with unemployment checks due to arrive a week or so later, have been helped through the period until money begins to arrive.

company's 10 districts, spread over a 16-county area. Most of United's damage resulted from trees, limbs and other objects falling on and breaking wires.

Approximately six per cent of the company's telephones were affected by the storm. In view of the severity and concentration of the storm in United's area the amount of service interruption was considered low. In the past, storms of equal intensity resulted in a far greater of phones being out of service and for longer periods of time, he said.

Caldwell credited the high percentage of lines in modern cable installation and other storm resisting plant facilities with protecting the service.

Where service interruptions did occur, prompt action by maintenance crews restored service in a minimum of time. The greatest problem was reaching points isolated by roads closed with drifted snow. The regular Gettysburg maintenance crews were augmented by 44 men from other United areas in expediting recovery. The men worked from dawn to dusk and later in all kinds of weather until every phone was back in service.

Freak Spin Of Wheel Brings Coqueens For Blossom Fete

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two pretty young girls have learned, as any gambler knows, that the wheel of fortune has some strange habits.

This time it turned up two winners, so Miss Rhode Island and Miss Colorado reign jointly today as queen of Washington's 50th annual Cherry Blossom Festival. Japanese Ambassador Joichiro Asakai gave the big wheel of states a healthy spin Friday night to pick a winner. Round and round it went, and it finally stopped at the notch labeled Colorado.

"QUICK CHICK"

Kathleen Knous, 19, stepped forward to be wrapped in the queen's robe and don a $100,000 pearl crown. The pink, pearl-embroidered robe was already around her shoulders when, it seemed, Lady Luck got other ideas.

The wheel suddenly began to slip backward. A quick click and it was in the Rhode Island notch. "This wheel does funny things, ladies and gentlemen," said John A. Logan, chairman of the festival ball. Frances Elizabeth Pastore of Rhode Island was called forward to don the queenly regalia.

Miss Knous was near tears.

Miss Pastore, 18-year-old daughter of Sen. John O. Pastore,

D.R.I., was amazed. "I just can't believe it," she said. Soon she, too, was near tears.

COMMITTEE HUDDLES

"We realized this Colorado child was going to be terribly hurt," Logan said afterward. So the festival queen committee, headed by Logan and Perle Mesta, huddled to seek a way out. They talked about it for nearly an hour.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, along with many others among the 1,200 at the ball, was for coqueens. He called out the suggestion in the confusion that followed the wheel switch.

Miss Pastore was all for coqueens, too.

And coqueens it is, for the first time in festival history.

The cherry trees that surround Washington's Tidal Basin were a gift from Japan, symbolizing friendship with the United States. The first of the trees was planted in 1912.

Princesses from 50 states, Guam and Puerto Rico vied for the queenly honors.

Miss Pastore is 18 and attends the Stone Ridge Country Day School of the Sacred Heart in Nearby Montgomery County, Md.

Miss Knous, daughter of Colorado Lt. Gov. Robert L. Knous, is a student at the University of Colorado.

HEAVYWEIGHT SERIOUS AFTER BRAIN BLOWS

BLUEFIELD, W.Va. (AP)—Veteran heavyweight Tunney Hunsaker, 32, was in critical condition today from the effects of a knockout punch delivered in the 10th and final round of a fight Friday night.

He was afflicted with the same type of brain injury that caused the death of former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret in New York this week. Doctors said he had a 50-50 chance for recovery.

Paret, who was to be buried in Miami today, never regained consciousness from the beating he suffered at the hands of Emile Griffith March 24. In contrast, Hunsaker walked to his corner after taking the 10-count and collapsed while being examined by the ring physician at nearby Beckley, where the fight was held. His opponent was Joe Sheldon of Cleveland, Ohio.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Hunsaker, a former police chief of Fayetteville, W.Va., was rushed to the Bluefield Sanatorium, a distance of nearly 45 miles, and underwent an emergency 2-hour operation by Dr. E. L. Gage, a brain specialist.

Dr. Gage said Hunsaker underwent surgery for a subdural hematoma hemorrhage on the right side of the brain, which had caused paralysis to the boxer's right side.

Paret suffered a similar injury after his 12th round beating from Griffith.

Mrs. Hunsaker, who collapsed when she first entered the ambulance at Beckley to be at her husband's side, said Dr. Gage told her after the operation there were signs of movement on Tunney's right side.

MIXED FREELY

"But we are not encouraged too quickly," the doctor told her.

"As soon as I realized he was unconscious, I thought of Paret and how similar it seemed," she replied. Mrs. Hunsaker said that only a few days ago a sportscaster had asked her husband for his views on the Paret case, and he replied: "You can get killed in a traffic accident just as easily."

Speakers said Hunsaker and Sheldon had mixed it freely. Hunsaker was stunned in the third and took an eight-count in the next round. He made a strong comeback.

Then, late in the 10th round, Hunsaker caught a vicious right cross that floored him. He got up after the 10-count and wobbled to his corner.

A professional since 1958, Hunsaker had won six, lost 11 and fought one no contest in 18 fights before Friday night.

A native of Princeton, Ky., he was the heavyweight Golden Gloves champion in Texas in 1952 while serving in the Air Force.

PENDER CHOICE IN TITLE BOUT THIS EVENING

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—Britain's Terry Downes, coholder of the world middleweight championship, feels he has Paul Pender's number and will knock out the American in their third title fight tonight.

"I'll get him after the eighth round," predicted the cocky cockney, who is recognized as king of the 160-pound set by Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, is considered the champion by the National Boxing Association.

Despite the 25-year-old Londoner's supreme confidence, the odds makers here had the 31-year-old ex-fireman from Brookline, Mass., an 8-5 favorite in the 15-round television — ABC 10 p.m. EST — bout at the Boston Garden. A crowd of 10,000 and a gross take of about $70,000 is likely.

HAD 12 STITCHES

Well remembered here is the deft surgery performed by the clever American on the game Briton's nose in their first scrap 15 months ago. Pender's snapping jabs and fast rights split the bridge of Downes' nose. Twelve stitches were required to close the wound after the referee halted the blood-letting in the seventh round.

Mor difficult to understand is Pender's quitting on the stool after the ninth round of their return fight at London last July 11. He was cut over the left eye but was about even with Downes at that point.

Pender said he was weakened from a heavy cold.

Accusations from the Downes camp that he quit cold have aroused the bent-nosed veteran. "He makes a lot of noise," said Pender referring to Downes, "but talking won't settle the fight. I'll show him in the ring. I'm ready."

INDIANS LOSE FIRST PLAYOFF

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Springfield Indians, stung by their first playoff loss in American Hockey League competition in over two years, try to get back even with the Cleveland Barons tonight.

The two division champions, who are battling it out in a best of 7 series while the also-rans scramble in lesser playoffs, meet again at Springfield. It was there Wednesday night that the Barons beat Springfield 4-3 in three overtimes—ending the Indians' 10-game winning streak in the last two years of Calder Cup play.

Providence also is at Hershey tonight in the deciding game of their quarter-final series, with the winner advancing into a semifinal series with Buffalo. The Bisons clinched their quarterfinal test against Rochester Friday night—beating the Amerks 5-1 for a 2-0 sweep of the best-of-3 set.

MOUNT LOSES FIRST GAME TO TOWSON 9

The Mt. St. Mary's College baseball team was held to five scattered hits by Tom Dulin and Lynn Hammond as it lost its opening game to Towson State 3-1 on the latter's field Friday.

Amoss started on the mound for the Mountaineers and gave up all of the runs after being touched for six hits in six innings. Massia allowed but one hit in two innings of relief work.

Singles by Roy and Curth produced the Mount run in the first frame.

The victory was the fourth straight for Towson to give it a 5-1 record.

The Gettysburg-Chambersburg High School track meet scheduled for Friday, was postponed until Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock.

Two baseball games on Friday were rained out, Delone at Kennard-Dale, and Dover at New Oxford.

Three events for Gettysburg College teams today have also been washed out. Mantle, already winner of two MVP awards and a close second to Roger Maris of the Yanks last year, was the pre-season choice for this season's MVP in the AL by 88 of the 109 writers who voted. Maris was not named on a single ballot.

Mays barely won out as the likely MVP choice in the NL, with 34 votes to 32 for Cepeda.

Lary, whose record was 23-9 last year, had a 41-23 vote lead over southpaw Whitey Ford the Yankees in the voting for top winner among AL pitchers.

Kauf, 18-13 last season, paced the voting in the NL pitching prospects with 19 to 14 for Milwaukee's perennial ace, Warren Spahn.

BULLET GOLF TEAM SNARES 17-1 VICTORY

The Gettysburg College golf team successfully lifted the lid on its 1962 season by thumping Susquehanna 17-1 Friday afternoon on the country club course in a steady rain.

The victory was not only the first of the campaign for the Bullets' well balanced squad, but it also marked the debut of Rod Munday as head coach.

Friday's rain didn't hamper the Bullets as most of the linksmen turned in top scores. George Markley, a 21-year-old Junior from Camp Hill, took the medalist honors with a two over par 37-35-72. Chuck Johnson, Allentown and Bob Brush, Orange, Conn., came through with 79's.

One of the best performances was turned in by Junior Penn Yeatman, Kennett Square. Yeatman toured the course in 43-34-77 and parred the last six holes.

Barry Markowitz topped the visiting Susquehanna squad with a low total of 39-39-77.

Gettysburg will entertain the linksmen of Johns Hopkins University Tuesday afternoon in a 1 o'clock match.

The results:

Swarming Of Termites In Spring Is Sign Of Trouble Says County Farm Agent

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Swarming of the winged adults in early spring can be a telltale sign of trouble from termites. Newly emerged adults have black bodies with four long, gray wings. These winged termites are attracted to light and swarm about doors and windows. They shed or break off their wings a short time after emergence.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

No damage is done by these winged adults but their purpose is to attempt to start new colonies in other suitable locations. Under household conditions, most of them soon die and are of no further concern except as a nuisance. But the original colony from which the swarm originated will continue to be active.

LIVE IN GROUND

Termite damage does not come on suddenly as often believed. They may be at work several years before causing extensive damage to a building. The workers live in the ground, never come out in the open, and are seldom noticed until they swarm.

To control termites locate the area of the colony, then apply a chemical to the soil to make a poisoned soil barrier between their nest and the wood. The extension office can provide more complete information on control methods.

Many farmers are using weedy homegrown red cloverseed. A 1961 drill box study in one Pennsylvania county showed 62 per cent of the farmers' homegrown seed had excessive weed seeds, especially those of buckhorn plantain. The buckhorn count averaged 4,432 weed seeds per pound of red clover. One farmer's sample contained 18,880 buckhorn seeds per pound.

WEED CONTENT

Seven per cent of the red clover contained Canada thistle and horsebettle seeds. Some samples were also very high in weed content containing 13 per cent to 15 per cent weed seeds. One sample contained 73,000 weed seeds per pound. The average weed content of all low quality samples was 3 per cent weed seeds.

In addition to being weedy, 38 per cent of the homegrown red cloverseed was low in germination averaging 55 per cent.

Eighteen different weed species were found in the homegrown red clover. Predominant weeds were buckhorn plantain, wild carrot, black-seeded plantain, lamb'squarters and foxtail.

Simple mixtures, consisting of a single forage grass, are generally a single forage grass, are generally most satisfactory for Adams County farms. At the same time the relatively moderate rate of seeding recommended by Penn State agronomists are equal to or superior to the much higher seeding rates used by some farmers.

In one trial conducted by Dr. J. B. Washko, Penn State research agronomist, a simple mixture consisting of one adapted grass and one adapted legume seeded at the recommended seeding rate out-yielded a complex or "shotgun" mixture by over a ton of dry matter per acre as an average for three years. Yield for the two mixtures were similar the first harvest year.

Effects of high versus recommended seeding rates have been studied at many colleges. In a West Virginia study a mixture of 4 pounds of red clover and 3 pounds of timothy per acre yielded as much hay as a mixture consisting of 16 pounds red clover and 9 pounds timothy.

POORER RESULTS

The poorer results from complex mixtures and high seeding rates can frequently be explained on the basis of severe top and root competition when too many seeds are seeded per square foot. Surviving plants have weaker and more shallow roots, so they cannot utilize moisture and fertilizer efficiently.

Mixtures consisting of more than one legume and one grass may be desirable when soil conditions are variable particularly due to drainage.

Recommended mixtures and seeding rates for all forage purposes and soil conditions are given in the 1962 Agronomy Guide, available from the extension office in the Courthouse, Gettysburg.

PSYCHOANALYSIS BANNED

NEW YORK (AP) — Anna Maria Alberghetti is one star who has no desire to be psychoanalyzed.

"I say that to some people and they look at me as if there's something the matter with me," reports the leading lady of "Carnival!" noting the high popularity of such examination in some theatrical circles.

"I solve my own problems. Maybe they wake me up at five o'clock in the morning but I do it myself."

THE JOB OF LAYMEN

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — "If the world is going to be won for Christ, it's going to be won by the laity — the people of God," says the Rev. Dr. Robert G. Mayfield, general secretary of the Methodist Board of Lay Activities. "Our function is to be a redemptive agent in the world."

SETTLE ONE FUSS BETWEEN U.S. AND REDS

By CARL R. HARTMAN

BERLIN (AP)—One dispute between the United States and Russia has been settled. As a result, the U.S. liaison mission in East Germany and the Soviet mission at U.S. headquarters in West Germany may once again move about without restriction.

The agreement Thursday between U.S. Gen. Bruce C. Clarke and Soviet Marshal Ivan S. Konev eased the atmosphere somewhat but brought no significant change — or even hope of immediate change — in the general tension hanging over West Berlin.

Clarke, the U.S. Army commander in Europe, and Konev, the Soviet commander in East Germany, met in Potsdam, East Germany, to settle the dispute that developed after East German police shot up a U.S. mission car.

NORMAL ACTIVITY

The two commanders agreed their missions at each others' headquarters would resume normal activity today. There was no public mention of the shooting incident.

Konev said after the shooting on March 20 that he was sorry about it, but Clarke termed this insufficient because the Russian did not guarantee the safety of the U.S. mission members.

The American commander ordered a military escort to shadow all movements of the Soviet mission in Frankfurt, West Germany. The Russians retaliated by banning any movement of the U.S. mission out of Potsdam without a special permit.

Gen. Clarke, who is retiring from the Army April 30, requested the meeting with Konev and said he wanted to prevent any further worsening of U.S.-Soviet relations. It was the first time the two commanders had met.

Talks Not Resumed On Tape Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House and the Kremlin have not renewed discussions on an exchange of taped television broadcasts by President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

In disclosing this Thursday, White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said his own trip to Russia was still on, although details had not yet been worked out. A television program with the time divided between Kennedy and Khrushchev was under consideration by the United States and the Soviet Union at one point. It was to be shown in both nations.

Unable To Seat A Jury, Dismisses Murder Charge

By BOB HORTON

SNEEDVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The preacher said he had to preach a funeral. Teachers said they had to teach. But most said flatly they were prejudiced.

So, unable to seat a jury after five days, Circuit Court Judge Wayne Oliver dismissed murder charges Friday against two men accused in the slaying of two deputy sheriffs.

Lawyers believed it a precedent in state legal history and perhaps in the nation.

Only two jurors had been selected from 1,400 citizens—practically every adult in this small mountain village—for the trial of Carl Myers, 39, and James Horton, 19.

State troopers had been ordered onto the streets to find prospective jurors. Twenty-seven veniremen were fined up to $25 for failing to answer court summons.

SAD, DEPLORABLE

"It is a sad, deplorable, regrettable, terrible fact that a jury cannot be had in this county," Oliver said in dismissing the charges. "The community is at a standstill so far as these cases are concerned."

The defendants refused to consent to moving the trial to another county. Under state law they have the right to be tried in the county where the offense was committed. Myers and Horton were accused of killing deputies Lon Tyler and Alex Morris in a gunbattle last April. They also were charged with felonious assault on a sheriff.

In an earlier trial for the pair last fall, a jury tried to retract its verdict after returning a decision against Myers and Horton and acquitting four other defendants originally charged in the case.

A mistrial resulted, and the State Supreme Court later upheld the trial judge in saying the verdict could not be withdrawn. The acquittal of the four stood, but new trials ordered for Myers and Horton.

A man has tact who won't change his mind but will change the subject.

CAN'T SETTLE COAST STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Efforts to settle the West Coast maritime strike by mediation have been abandoned.

President Kennedy's three-man special mediation panel Friday night gave up efforts to settle the three-week-old strike after two days of separate talks with both sides. The panel flew to Washington to report no progress to Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

Goldberg and other Cabinet members will confer with the President who will then decide whether to interrupt the strike by using his power under the Taft-Hartley Act which would restore shipping for at least 80 days.

Hawaii Gov. William F. Quinn disclosed in Honolulu that an affidavit outlining effects of the strike has been mailed to the Justice Department in Washington.

SUPER-TORQUE COSTS YOU NOTHING

...if it doesn't outpull and outwear any other tractor tire in America...

PROVE IT TO YOURSELF

Try the Super-Torque. If it doesn't outpull and outwear any other rear tractor tire you've ever used, regardless of tractor, soil, or farming job, we'll give you your money back. Every red cent!

There isn't a better tractor tire value than Super-Torque! Field tests by more than 1,000 farmers have proved this. It digs deeper . . . pulls harder . . . wears longer than any other tractor tire. "Angle Braced" lugs are the reason — an engineering breakthrough which allows extraordinary lug length and depth. So much more length and depth that after a full year's use a Super-Torque will probably have more wear and traction left than a brand new conventional tire.

OUR PLEDGE

The Super-Torque rear tractor tire is guaranteed to have better traction longer and to wear longer than any other rear tractor tire you have ever owned, including the original tires on your tractor.

If in a full season's use from date of purchase, the Super-Torque tires do not prove to have better field traction and show less tread wear than other tires when used under the same conditions for a like period of time, your Goodyear Dealer or Goodyear Service Store upon return of the tires will refund in cash any payment made plus any allowance made for your traded-in tires.

(This guarantee excludes comparison with special purpose Rear Tractor tires.)

Like all other Goodyear tires, the Super-Torque is also guaranteed by Goodyear against defects in workmanship and material without limit as to time or mileage. Any Goodyear tire dealer will make allowance on a new tire based on original tread depth remaining and current "Goodyear Price."

EXCLUSIVE ANGLE BRACED LUGS MAKE THE DIFFERENCE!

LUGS DEEPER OVERALL THAN ANY OTHER TIRE IN AMERICA*

Sheer pulling power from a deeper, more positive soil bite.

* Comparison with rear tractor tires other than special-purpose tires.

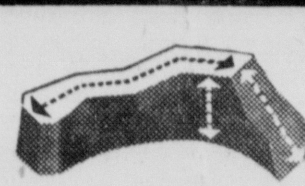

LUGS LONGER THAN ANY OTHER TIRE IN AMERICA*

Greater frontal area to grip more soil, assure greater traction longer.

AVERAGE LUG WIDTH GREATER THAN ANY OTHER TIRE IN AMERICA*

More rubber on the road for longer wear, far smoother riding.

MORE RUBBER PER LUG THAN ANY OTHER TIRE IN AMERICA*

This is the "working" rubber . . . and the more there is, the longer the tire delivers peak traction and wear.

...all this without lugs tearing or folding under!

Will Study Road Hazards In County

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Montgomery County engineering firm was hired by the State Highways Department Thursday to draw up plans for the elimination of three road hazards in Adams and York counties.

A. W. Martin Associates of King of Prussia will do the job for $32,900.

The projects include: Adams County—L.R. 126, improve grade crossing in Cross Keys.

Adams—L.R. 123, cut down vertical curve in Heidesburg.

York—L.R. 123, standby lanes at crossing of U.S. 74 in Dillsburg.

INDICT TEXAN IN BIG FRAUD

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A federal grand jury has indicted multimillionaire financier Billie Sol Estes, 37, and three other Texans on charges of plotting a $24-million fraud.

The four were charged in indictments returned Thursday with conspiring to defraud nine finance companies with fake mortgages.

In most cases, security for loans was liquid fertilizer tanks. Prosecutors claim some of the tanks never existed. One of the biggest among Estes' 30 enterprises is a business handling the fertilizer.

Dist. Judge R. E. Thomason received the grand jury's report while sheriff's officers were investigating the unexplained death of George Krutikoff, 49, an El Paso certified public accountant who had worked for Estes.

A rancher discovered the body of Krutikoff in his car near Clint, Tex. A hose from the exhaust pipe indicated carbon monoxide fumes had been piped inside the auto.

Morse Objects To "Blossom" Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—A cherry blossom party was thrown in a nook of the Senate and Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., says it flowered into "a drinking bout."

He wants the Senate to put its foot down.

The American people, he said Thursday night, have a right to resent a policy that, in effect, turns the Senate into a saloon.

Three cases of hard liquor were carried into a room provided at a senator's request for the party Wednesday night on occasion of Washington's cherry blossom festival, Morse said.

The drinking that took place was of such a nature it has caused considerable comment and also embarrassment to him, Morse said. He mentioned no names.

Newsy Leaves Fund For Scholarships

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A man who sold newspapers on downtown streets for 20 years, and saved most of his income, has set up a scholarship fund for deserving youngsters.

A will by the late John W. Cape, Smith, probated Thursday, estimated his estate at $1,300 cash and $15,000 in 20,000 in bonds.

Most of the bonds go to his son, daughter and others. The remainder goes to the Eastminster Presbyterian Church for scholarships for boys and girls whom the church may consider worthy. Smith died March 16.

Given Contract To Resurface Turnpike

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Chambersburg firm was awarded a $78,119 contract Thursday to begin resurfacing the last 10 miles of the original Pennsylvania Turnpike, starting April 15.

The State Turnpike Commission awarded the contract to E. F. Plummer and Sons. The stretch of highway to be resurfaced is west of Carlisle.

In addition to laying four-inch bituminous concrete over the original roadway, the contractor will add drainage beneath the surface and stabilize the median grass plot with concrete. The shoulders also will be stabilized.

The commission estimated it would take four months to complete the work. Traffic will be maintained, it added.

WILL CALL 372

HARRISBURG (AP)—Only 372 Pennsylvanians will be called into active service this June, marking the state's lowest draft call since the Berlin crisis last July.

The call, announced Thursday by the state's Selective Service Headquarters, is 11 below the call for May and 17 below that of April.

The 372 men represent the state's share of the national quota of 6,500 men to be called up in June.

BOMB SCARES MADE MOSTLY BY JOKESTERS

By LOUIS G. PANOS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most airplane bomb scares are started by practical jokesters—not by mentally deranged characters, FBI sources said Friday.

Expressing concern about the growing number of plane bomb hoaxes, FBI officials say they have identified nearly 400 persons responsible for such false reports in the last six years.

"It has been found that most of these individuals have been persons of maturity and, in many cases, persons who were connected with substantial businesses," said the FBI.

"It has been apparent that many of these individuals can be best described as perverted practical jokesters who made statements regarding possible bombs on aircraft out of a warped sense of humor or while under the influence of liquor," it added.

FBI files disclosed this cross-section of bomb hoax perpetrators:

GOOD EXAMPLE

A welding company partner, 49, from Fall River, Mass., who he came angry about the delay of his flight from Miami to Boston in January 1961. "If you don't get this flight out in 10 minutes," he told a ticket agent, "I'll have to remind my bomb." He was fined $250.

A Midwestern lawyer who tried to delay the departure of a client by falsely reporting a bomb was aboard the client's plane. He was sentenced to one year in prison and was fined $1,000.

A Denver man who telephoned airport officials that his mother-in-law and six sticks of dynamite were aboard a departing plane. When arrested he said he had been drinking after his wife made him angry. He was sentenced to four months.

False reports like these, said the FBI, "constitute a grave problem and represent an appalling record of lawlessness."

Ralph Masenheimer, Hanover; their son, Philip, on spring vacation from the University of West Virginia, Morgantown, and son, John, of Massanutten Academy, Woodstock, Va., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nail, Emmitsburg Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill and Mrs. Elinory Yoder, White Hall, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stang, children, Tommy and Brenda, Gaithersburg, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Caswell, R. 2.

Taneytown Temple 23, Pythian Sisters Past Chief Club met at the home of Mrs. John Harmon Tuesday evening with 16 members present and one guest. Seven members celebrated birthdays during March and April. Each received a gift.

Mrs. Fern Heiges, Hanover, invited the members to meet at her home May 1.

The guess box, given by Mrs. Paul Hilbert, was won by Emma Reifsnider. The door prize was won by Mrs. Fred Shank. Refreshments were served by the hosts.

TV FEATURES "OSCAR" SHOW MONDAY NIGHT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The really big show of the week is Monday night's "Oscar" awards ceremonies, when the motion picture industry rewards its best efforts.

ABC network will broadcast the show, starting at 10:30 p.m. (EST) with Bob Hope and a long list of stars contributing.

The next seven days, in fact, promise a number of interesting programs.

Sunday brings a British-produced miracle day, "Laudes Evangelii," on CBS (2:30-4 p.m.), followed in swift change of pace by an hour program on the Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta, Ga., on the same network.

OTHER PROGRAM

ABC begins its two-hour old movie series Sunday night (8:30-10:30) with Clark Gable and Burt Lancaster in "Run Silent, Run Deep." NBC will present a live adaptation of Daphne du Maurier's "Rebecca." (10-11) with James Mason, Joan Hackett and Nina Foch.

"Here's Edie," a half-hour music and comedy special starring Edie Adams, Dick Shawn and Andre Previn will precede the "Oscar" awards show Monday night on ABC (10-10:30).

On Tuesday evening there is ABC's "Close-up," this one a study of the tangled traffic situation in American cities (10:30-11). Wednesday brings "American Landscape," an hour of folk music and lore on NBC (9-10 p.m.) starring Burgess Meredith, Phil Harris and Chuck ("Rälema") Connors.

TRUCKS WITH DOLLARS OFF FOR SEATTLE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two trucks, carrying a million dollars in silver dollars on a 3,290-mile journey to Seattle's World Fair, set out from this Capital City of Pennsylvania Friday on the first leg of the cross-country trip.

The money is being hauled by two specially equipped tractor-trailers, with floodlights and windows so that spectators along the way may see what so much money looks like—all locked up in chests.

The cartwheel fortune, which was picked up Thursday at the Philadelphia mint, will be on the road for 12 days. The next stop was Youngstown, Ohio.

While in Harrisburg, the fortune was open for viewing for four hours. Hundreds of men, women and children took a look.

Basically, of course, the whole thing is a publicity stunt dreamed up to boost the space age fair at Seattle. Government officials and bankers went along with the idea.

State police escorted the precious caravan along the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

HARRIET LANE JOHNSTON "FOLKLORE"

The wholly imaginary account of Harriet Lane's "romance" with Edward, Prince of Wales (later King Edward VII), which is accepted as an actual fact by many, is concluded at this time.

"During his visit to Washington, D. C., the young Prince of Wales and Harriet Lane, niece and official hostess of President James Buchanan, were virtually inseparable. He accompanied her on a gay boat trip to Mount Vernon, showered her with beautiful gifts and invariably had her seated beside him at formal dinners at the British Embassy.

"DECLARES HIS LOVE"

"On his last day at the White House the Prince of Wales joined Harriet Lane and her friends in a game of tennis and, according to historian Ryan, it was then that the heir to the English throne declared his love for the beautiful American girl.

"The lady said 'no.' As gently as possible she broke the news that her heart belonged to a rich Baltimorean, Henry Elliott Johnston.

"Like George Washington, Harriet Lane apparently wanted no entangling alliances and no crown. Forty-three years later Harriet Lane Johnston died. Her will was a model of enlightened charity.

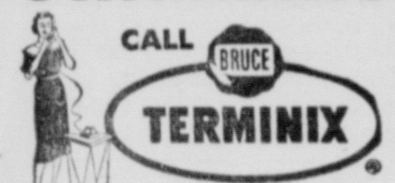

"Mrs. Johnston gave her mansion as a home for dependent women, and left, among other charitable bequests, $300,000 to the National Cathedral (Episcopal) School for Boys."

FULL OF ERRORS

The foregoing account is so full of errors that it would be impossible to list them all. The most obvious, of course, would be the background of both Edward Albert and Harriet Lane. Victoria would never have tolerated an American match for her eldest son — no matter how much she liked and respected both James Buchanan and his niece. In addition the Prince Consort, Victoria's German husband, was a born "matchmaker" and had already chosen a wife for the heir to the throne. The prince of Wales was born in 1841 — he was only nineteen years of age at the time of his visit to America — Harriet Lane was some eleven years his senior in age, a rather insurmountable barrier in that day and age.

Both Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, her consort, mistrusted the young Prince of Wales — his

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Albert Schweitzer manifests his belief that we experience God in our lives as a "Will to Love." Although a renowned organist, theologian and authority on Bach, he has dedicated himself to suffering humanity. After studying medicine, he founded a hospital for natives in Africa, on the theory that "man belongs to man." There in the jungle, his reverence for all life brought him fame. The world has given him awards including the Nobel Prize, and has invited him to head up a proposed peace conference of world religious leaders. Yet, this humble man usually travels third class. #### EARTH AND SPACE SCIENCE

Since the advent of the atomic bomb, competition in the field of science between this country and Russia has been intense. We want to be in the lead — at any cost; consequently, we have given priority to science in the public schools and colleges. This dynamic change has carried us into the realm of the Space Age — a time of social, economic, psychological and educational revolution. To be sure, students and teachers alike have felt the growing pains of this latter part of the 20th century.

The high school course in earth and space science is a result of these growing pains. Previously, general science was taught throughout the 9th Grade to the extent that the student had become supersaturated and bored.

difficult one. His motives for certain decisions, his efforts to avert Civil War were harshly misjudged — not only at the time but for many years thereafter. Living person, realized that a war between the states would breed a bitterness and hatred that would live in the hearts of both north and south for untold generations. He (Buchanan) felt that the question of slavery could be settled without war and he was right but the majority were against him and his very name was reviled not only during his lifetime but for long after his death. "Coward" was the least offensive of the epithets hurled at him.

The notes on Harriet Lane Johnston and her uncle, James Buchanan, will be continued in this column next week.

This is understandable since the same subject was taught to him for three years on three levels. The course itself, however, is not new, for it has been taught in New York schools for the past 30 years.

What is earth and space science? It is a study of physiology or geomorphology, usually described as a study of the physical surface features of the earth. In a broad sense, surface features include land forms or scenic features of the earth, the oceans and the atmosphere.

MANY BRANCHES
The many branches of earth and space science include astronomy, mineralogy, climatology, geology, paleontology, oceanography, meteorology and many other divisions of physical geography. In the broadest sense, it could easily be assumed that earth and space science should involve a great deal from the natural sciences. Conversely, however, biology, physics and chemistry are more fully covered elsewhere; this course draws most of materials from geology, astronomy, etc. However, the natural sciences are drawn freely as in a earth chemistry where specific formulas are described for specific rock formations.

The individual aims of this course are primarily to stimulate the student beyond memorized descriptions. For example, in order for a student to comprehend geological and paleontological formations, it is advantageous for him to experiment with these specimens. These physical and chemical properties then become inherent. In essence, the student learns by seeing and doing. This technique is most desirable at the Ninth Grade level since facts show that students on this maturity level tend to forget facts and figures, but retain general theories and concepts. Another aim is to incorporate current events into the program such as the first manned rocket into space. This keeps the student abreast of the times and happenings not only in the class but also in the community. Transference from lessons learned to lessons used is highlighted here.

DISPLAY ON MONDAY
Correlating subjects and working on problems individually either on projects or reports are also aims that do not go without notice. Students are required to use their intuition and ingenuity in completing a science project. This activity often acts as a "cure all" since again facts show that students on this grade level need room for expression and above all recognition. The projects are often put into competition in science fairs or are simply displayed. A display of this nature will be presented at the high school building on April 9 at the PTA.

In essence, science is changing and is not a static body of facts. Consequently, the action of the student, the ideas of the teacher and principles of the institution must change. We must come to understand the world we live in as a base of operations for future development. The 10 years to come will be the critical years. Will the generations faced with these critical problems be equipped to sustain a growing society? This question can only be answered by preparing and waiting for tomorrow.

Peter Thomson of Australia won the New Zealand Open for the seventh time. He beat Kel Nagle, runnerup, by nine shots.

Favor "West Side Story" To Win Majority "Oscar" Awards Monday Evening

By JAMES BACON

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's "West Side Story" all the way. At least so say the smart money bettors as the annual awarding of Hollywood's Oscars approaches.

The blockbuster musical goes into Monday night's big show at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium an odds-on favorite to win in each of its 11 nominations, including best picture, best direction and best supporting actor and actress.

If that happens, then "West Side Story" will equal the Academy Award record of "Ben Hur," which took home 11 Oscars in 1960.

The "West Side Story" bandwagon is even expected to get Natalie Wood the best actress award although she was nominated for another picture—"Splendor in the Grass."

HAS COMPETITION

Miss Wood played the key role of Maria in "West Side Story," but the voters ignored that performance in the nominations—obviously because her singing was dubbed by a professional singer and her dancing didn't compare with that of the Broadway professionals.

As best picture, "West Side" has strong competition from "Judgment at Nuremberg," which also got 11 nominations, and "The Hustler," which got nine. "The Guns of Navarone," a box-office smash and one of the most entertaining films in years, could surprise all. "Fanny," a charming movie, came out too early in the year to influence voters.

SOPHIA LOREN

In the best actress division, Miss Wood's chief competition comes from Sophia Loren, who gave perhaps the best dramatic performance of the year in "Two Women." The Italian actress brilliantly crossed the almost impassable chasm between sexpot and serious actress. She's my choice.

The others are Geraldine Page, "Summer and Smoke," Piper Laurie, "The Hustler," and Audrey Hepburn, "Breakfast at Tiffany's."

The top actor race is the closest in years. Maximilian Schell is the favorite as the Nazi defense lawyer off "Judgment at Nuremberg" but he's got rugged opposition from Spencer Tracy in the same picture, Charles Boyer in "Fanny" and Paul Newman in "The Hustler." The surprise of the night may be Stuart Whitman in "The Mark."

JUDY GARLAND

Rita Moreno must rate as favorite on the "West Side" impetus but Judy Garland, "Judgment at Nuremberg" is the sentimental choice among supporting actresses. The others are Una Merkel, "Summer and Smoke," Lotte Lenya, "Roman Spring of Mrs. Stone," and Fay Bainter, "The Children's Hour."

Unknown George Chakiris, as leader of the Puerto Rican street gang in "West Side," stole the picture from its stars. He looks like a shoo-in for supporting honors, especially since George O. Scott, "The Hustler," tried to withdraw his nomination. Others are Peter Falk, "Pocketful of Miracles," and Montgomery Clift, "Judgment at Nuremberg."

And then there's Jackie Gleason, "The Hustler," big enough to steal the whole show. It's all on television, too.

Economists Tell How To Make A Good-Looking And Good-Tasting Cherry Pie

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON Extension Home Economist

There's nothing quite so pretty — and so mouthwatering — as a freshly baked pie made with frozen tart red cherries.

Yet, all too often when the first piece is removed, the plate is flooded with juice from the rest of the pie. Or, the juice is over-thick, and the cherries appear suspended in a jellied mass.

For a good-looking as well as a good-tasting cherry pie, home economists at Cornell University, who have been test-baking frozen red cherry pies with various kinds and amounts of thickener, have these suggestions:

Use one quart frozen cherries for a well-filled eight or nine-inch pie.

Mix 2 1/2 tablespoons of tapioca with 1 1/2 tablespoons of cornstarch. THAW CHERRIES

Sugar to taste. But remember, you probably have already put some sweetening in the cherries when you froze them. So don't add too much.

Cherries sweetened with corn syrup and sugar will need slightly more thickener (about 1/2 teaspoon each of cornstarch and tapioca). Now — to make the pie: Thaw the cherries only until most of the free ice has disappeared. Drain off the juice and add to it the thickener and sugar mixed together. Heat rapidly until thickening is complete. Pour into unbaked pie shell and add latticed cover. So the pie won't bubble over in the oven, keep the temperature at least 400 degrees F. Put the pie on the lowest shelf of the oven to get a brown undercrust. Bake for 35 minutes or until top crust is light brown.

HOUSEHOLD COSTS Household operation is taking an increasingly larger share of the family housing dollar. But this doesn't mean that all operating costs are rising. Families are making greater use of some services. For example, residential electric rates have remained almost constant during the last year and have risen only seven per cent in the last nine years. Families who have larger electric bills are probably using more electricity.

Increased use of electricity doesn't mean a proportionate rise in costs. As use increases, electric companies offer a decreasing scale of cost per kilowatt hour. Family members may help cut household operating costs by turning off electric lights and appliances when they aren't using them.

LAUNDRY COSTS UP

Although costs of washing machines, soap and detergents are lower than a year ago, increased use makes that total cost appear higher. Most homemakers who own automatic washers use them often rather than they did their conventional washers. Increased use of the washer and laundry products cause family laundry costs to rise. Using do-it-yourself services, such as coin-operated dry-cleaning machines, may help to stretch the household operation budget.

Rainwear will be even more water-repellent with the aid of a new silicone-base finish. The finish not only keeps the water out, but allows the air to circulate through the fabric. Water-repellent fabrics that can breathe are more comfortable to wear than garments with a finish that seals off the tiny open spaces in the weave.

INEXPENSIVE FINISH

The new water-repellent finish is an alloy of two silicone compounds. Besides adding water-repellence, the finish improves the fabrics resistance to wear and tear.

The silicone finish is inexpensive and manufacturers can apply it, along with flame-and-crease-resistant treatments, to lightweight cotton, wool and other fabrics.

Shoppers should read garment labels and watch for these new raincoat finishes, and check the label for information on the lasting quality of the finish. Some finishes may need to be replaced after the garment is washed or dry-cleaned. To get the greatest satisfaction from a raincoat follow the care instructions that come with it.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Christ's spiritual strength in the wilderness is related to Lent with its victory over temptation: In the wilderness, though hungry, He said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." On the awesome cliffs where He was tempted with worldly power and glory if He would worship evil, He said, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." With victory, "Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee."

MECO Wins Sales Award At Chicago

Metropolitan Edison Company received national recognition for its sales accomplishments in a ceremony Tuesday, at the 28th annual sales conference of the Edison Electric Institute at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago. John L. Beaver, commercial and industrial sales director, accepted the award for MECO's record in the field of commercial electric cooking promotion. This is the second time that MECO received this award in the last four years. Presentation was made by Robert Zimmerman, vice president of the Kansas City Power and Light Company.

The company's record of 44 per cent increase in electric cooking sales in restaurants, schools, hotels and institutions during 1961 was the major factor in securing this recognition among 196 member utilities of the Edison Electric Institute. High speed electronic cooking, heated dish and food dispensers and automatic coffee makers are only a few of the electric items that speed service in the modern food service kitchen.

WASHINGTON (AP)—White House press secretary Pierre Salinger plans to leave Monday for a 10-day vacation in the Virgin Islands.

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—An art expert has testified several paintings in the $100 million collection at the Barnes Gallery are forgeries.

Frederick Hart, chairman of the art department of the University of Pennsylvania, said Friday that he knew of "a number of misattributed paintings or forgeries," but he did not identify them. His testimony came at a hearing in Montgomery County Orphans' Court on the state's petition to ban a proposed $2 admission fee to the gallery, which is tax-exempt, in nearby Merion.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Maryland's highest court—citing a U.S. Supreme Court decision in a Pennsylvania case—has ruled daily religious exercises in Baltimore schools do not violate the U.S. Constitution.

STEEL, UNION SIGN 2-YEAR AGREEMENT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union and 10 of the 11 major steel producers formally signed new labor contracts Friday, and the union immediately expressed hope that a strike-free era was beginning in the basic steel industry.

The 11th steel firm — Great Lakes Steel Corp. — postponed its formal signing until today. A spokesman said company and union officials met until early morning, ironing out the mechanics of the contract, and were too exhausted to continue the formalities.

USW President David J. McDonald, the chief union negotiator during the bargaining sessions, described the two-year pact as historic.

ELIMINATE STRIKES

He said he was hopeful the contract would lead to the elimination of basic steel strikes forever.

Although there is no wage increase in the pact, workers will receive improvements in job security and unemployment benefits estimated to be worth 10 cents an hour. The contract runs until June of 1964 with a possible reopening of talks in the second year.

U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's leading steel manufacturer, was the first company to sign the new pact.

The other companies followed U.S. Steel after first meeting to discuss certain individual characteristics of their contracts. They included Bethlehem Steel, Pittsburgh, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Jones & Laughlin, Armco, Republic Iron Steel, Inland Steel, Wheeling Steel and Colorado Fuel & Iron.

MAN HELD IN SLAYING OF MONEY WIZARD

HASTINGS-ON-HUDSON, N.Y. (AP)—A sales merchant is being held as a material witness in the slaying of Maitland Brenhouse, millionaire financial wizard.

William Degna, 34, a commission sales merchant from White Plains, was held in $150,000 bail.

Dist. Atty. Leonard Rubinfeld said of Degna: "We feel he has information he is withholding that is vital to this investigation."

He did not elaborate. The body of the 50-year-old Brenhouse was found Thursday in the second-floor den of his home. Authorities said he had been shot in the temple at close range. The murder weapon has not been found.

He was found by his estranged wife, Nora, 47 — who lived next door to him with their four children — and his secretary, Mary Wehrman.

Brenhouse had many business irons in the fire and had been involved in several litigations. A nondrinker who was said to have gambled only in a business sense, Brenhouse also was described by his wife as having a number of girl friends.

She filed separation suits in 1950 and 1951.

"He Is Risen"

Story Of Christ As Told In Art Will Be Presented On Palm Sunday

With the approach of Easter, the time of rejoicing each year when the Christian world celebrates the Resurrection, NBC's PROJECT 20 will present "HE IS RISEN" which concludes the story of Jesus that began with the widely acclaimed program, "THE COMING OF CHRIST."

To quote from Richard Hanser's introduction to "HE IS RISEN," prefacing the events of the half-hour color presentation to be seen Palm Sunday, 8:30-9 p.m., NBC-TV:

"Behold!" said Saint Paul, "I show you a mystery." And in the the Ascension. The narration will again be spoken by Alexander Scourby.

PROJECT 20's musical director, Robert Russell Pennett, has prepared an original score for "HE IS RISEN," to be conducted by him. One of producer Hyatt's special roles — an art in itself — is to plan every detail of camera movement, optical effect and film cutting to create the illusion of "still-picture-in-action," a technique which PROJECT 20 has perfected for television.

Research director Daniel Jones and his assistant, Rhoda Grady, tion which gave "THE COMING OF CHRIST" such stature are again evident. The program will devote special attention to such episodes as the following:

The Impact of Christ's Word on the People; the Raising of Lazarus; Christ's Entry into Jerusalem; Driving the Money-Changers from the Temple; The Last Supper; The Agony in the Garden; Christ's Betrayal and Arrest; Peter's Betrayal of Christ; The Trial of Jesus; The Crucifixion, The Resurrection, and The Ascension.

The title derives from the 28th story of Easter — in the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ — mankind cherishes one of its most profound and moving mysteries. The Resurrection has, indeed, been called 'the central fact of all history.'

PROGRAM OF SPLENDOR

PROJECT 20's chief writer, Mr. Hanser, weaves a program of splendor from the words of the Bible itself. The narrative will select from the Scriptures the word-of-mouth reports among the people when Christ's ministry began:

"A great prophet is risen among us — Jesus of Nazareth!"

Thus the Savior makes His appearance and the story continues, with dramatic depiction of Jesus' teaching, preaching, praying, with His characteristic sayings:

"I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by Me."

GREAT PAINTINGS

The magnificence and compelling beauty of great paintings of the 15th-18th Centuries will be used to depict the climactic episodes of mankind's supreme story — the Agony in the Garden, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion and

"Pilate Offers Christ to the Multitude" by Solimena will be among the great works of art illustrating the last days of Christ's life and the Resurrection in "He Is Risen" to be seen on Palm Sunday, April 15, NBC-TV.

sought out the paintings with the cooperation of more than 50 museums, art galleries, churches, and other sources in a dozen countries. Some 300 paintings were selected for the program, many of them world-famous masterpieces. Among the painters whose work will be seen are Rembrandt, Titian, Van Dyck, Van Eyck, El Greco, Rubens, Velasquez and many others.

WON MANY AWARDS

The first program, "THE COMING OF CHRIST," has been shown in more than 10 countries and won awards at three international festivals in 1961, the only American television program to do so. When broadcast for the first time over the NBC network, it was seen by more than 31,000,000 people in this country and achieved the highest rating of any half-hour television documentary ever shown. When it was repeated on December 20, 1961, it drew an even greater audience.

In preparing "HE IS RISEN," the same reverence and dedica-

Chapter of Matthew, which describes how, when the women came to Christ's tomb on Easter morning, they found it empty and guarded by an angel. The angel speaks to the women, saying:

"Ye seek Jesus, which was crucified . . . He is not here; for He is risen!"

Robert Stack reports there's a fringe benefit in portraying Eliot Ness in "The Untouchables."

"Ness," says Bob, "couldn't afford a large wardrobe. Consequently, I've played most of the shows in the same suit. This means I don't have to worry about making a wardrobe change after lunch. The suit's always the same one I wore in the scenes shot that morning."

Vocalist Anita Gordon, appearing on ABC-TV's "Tennessee Ernie Ford Show," was launched in show business when, at the age of five, she won a Shirley Temple look-alike and talent contest in Dallas.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army is planning to disband about 824 small units all around the nation in paring its Reserve-Guard strength by 38,000 men, informed sources said Friday.

These are units—some as small as two-man detachments—which the Army feels it no longer needs. They represent about 10 per cent of the 8,800 lesser outfits maintained by the Guard and Reserve.

The Army is getting ready to start an exhaustive study aimed at spreading the cutback evenly over the nation.

America's most revered composers will be tendered by Mitch Miller's "Sing Along" when that NBC series devotes two programs, Thursday, May 3, and Thursday, May 10, to the works of Irving Berlin. Berlin will be 74 on May 11. "These telecasts," says Mitch, "will be a full showcase of the Berlin wizardry with songs. We promise that this won't be a 'then I wrote' show nor will we give quick eight-bar glimpses into the Berlin songbook." Berlin has been a "Sing Along" fan and recently dispatched a message to Mitch congratulating him on the treatment of an old Berlin movie tune.

Sen. Young Slaps Ex-C. D. Executive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, says an Eisenhower administration Civil Defense chief is making money selling fallout shelters to fill a demand he helped create.

Leo A. Hoegh, director of the Office of Civilian and Defense Mobilization under former President Eisenhower, replied that people should take their Civil Defense advice from the President, not "an uninformed senator or other alleged experts."

Young, long a foe of fallout shelters and civil defense spending in general, told the Senate Thursday that Hoegh was "reaping a rich financial harvest" in the shelter business as vice president in charge of sales for Wonder Building Corp. of Chicago.

Don Schwall, Boston Red Sox rookie pitcher, gave up only eight home runs in his rookie season. He pitched 179 innings in 1961.
